

Assessing the status of implementation of t
Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development and its contribution to the followup and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development during the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development
Fiftyseventh session
New York, 29 April to 03 May 20.

Multi-stakeholder panel on assessing the status of implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development and its contribution to the followup and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development during the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development

Wednesday, 1 May 2024, 10:00-11:30 a.m. EDT

Concept Note (28 March 2024)

Introduction and objectives

During its fiftyseventh session, the Commission on Population and Development will consider the special theme of "Assessing the status of implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development and its contribution to the followand review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development during the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development is multistakeholder panel will inform the deliberations under item 3 of the provisional agenda (General debate).

Panel members will include experts from government, academia and civil society. Panellists will bring their perspectives on both thachievements and theinfulfilled promises of the ICPD Programme of Action, considering the interlinkages between populadiomamics, universal health coverage, including forexual and reproductive health, the exercise of individual rights, including reproductive rightshe eradication of poverty and hunger, the advancement of gender equality and the empowerment of womenand girls the achievement of sustained economic "Reinforcing the 2030 Agenda and eradicating poverty in times of multiple crises felotive delivery of sustainable, resilient and innovative solutions". The SDGs to be reviewent this year's HLPF are the following:

Goal 1 End poverty in all its forms everywhere;

Goal 2 End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture;

Goal 13 - Take urgent action to combat climate change and its impacts;

Goal 16 Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels; and

Goal 17 Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the Global Partnership for Sustainable Development.

Format

Following opening remarks by the moderator, palisted will be invited to addresselectively, the guiding questions (see below). Member the Commission, observers and civil society organizations are encouraged to ask questions or raise issues in reaction preceding discussion Reading from prepared statements is discourageather sts will briefly respond to the questions and issues raisbed delegations after which the moderator will make brief closing remarks.

Indicative questions for panelists

The following are indicative questions to be addressed by the batsel

Whichdemographic trends are thenost salient to development planning in your country region or area of expertise?

From your perspective, what are the key aspects of the ICPD Programme of Actionic progress must be accelerated?

How can we best chieve a reduction of inequalities and ensure that no one is left behind implementing the Programme of Action?

How can theaccelerated implementation of the Programme of Action contribute to the

In the face of global challenges such as climate charoged insecurity, conflictand pandemics, how can the implementation of the ICPD Programme of Actional adapted to address emerging issues and burited illience in the population? Which strategies have been successful in promoting gender equality and women's empowerment as outlined in the ICPD Programme of Actional how can these be