

Follow-up to the Report of the High-level Panel on Digital Cooperation
Roundtable Champions and Key Constituents
(as of 24 April 2020)

The High-level Panel on Digital Cooperation was convened by the UN Secretary-General to provide recommendations on how the international community could work together to optimize the use of digital technologies and mitigate the risks. The Office of Special Adviser Fabrizio Hochschild shared the report with a wide range of stakeholders (including all member states) and received almost 100 responses from Member States, the private sector, academia, and civil society.

Many of these entities volunteered to lead or participate in one or more of the 18 recommendations, as either Champions or Key Constituents. Key Constituents have been assigned with attention to geographical, sectoral, and topical balance as recommended. Key Constituents will play an elemental role in contributing their skills and expertise to the roundtables, as steered by the Champions.

We are delighted to work with the following Champions and Key Constituents for each recommendation:
